

Year 4 - Geography of Western Europe

What are where is Europe?

Europe is a continent entirely in the Northern Hemisphere and mostly in the Eastern Hemisphere. It is bordered by the Arctic Ocean to the north, the Atlantic Ocean to the West and Mediterranean Ocean to the South.

Key Vocabulary

Europe - One of the seven continents. Where we live.

Western Europe - studied in Year 4

Eastern Europe - studied in Year 5

United Kingdom - where we live

Capital city - the city or town which is the main city and where the government meet.

Physical features - anything that is natural e.g. seas, mountains and forests

Human features - anything that is man-made e.g. roads, bridges and towns

Border - the edge of a country

Population - the number of people living in a place

